LUXURY TARTAN RANGES

Create a British heritage-inspired interior with our tactile woollen-look fabrics Elgin and Nairn.

Elgin is the larger scale construct of the pair and the intricate fabric design consists of a dominating background hue that has been layered with flecks of complementary colours to obtain a stunning checked appearance.

Nairn is a smaller scale design of a simplistic tone on tone check, ensuring whether a statement or understated fabric is desired there is a scale option to suit both tastes.

LUXURY VELVET RANGE

Create a vintage-inspired styling with our exquisite range of deep-pile crushed sumptuous velvets Elega.

Velvet is an on-trend fabric that is currently prevalent within interior design. As Velvet is associated with nobility it can also give your space a feeling of grandeur.

It is an adaptable fabric that blends effortlessly with other plains or textures and the textured surface reflects light creating a spacious feel.

VINTAGE-INSPIRED

the IMPORTANCE OF COLOUR

We recognise that colour has the ability to affect our moods which is why extensive research has gone into identifying particular shades that will create a positive ambience within your home.

Neutrals are the most dynamic colour grouping of all the fabrics as they have the capability to complement all shades on the spectrum.

Depending on the tone you choose, it can alter the mood created within your room.

Rich, deep neutrals can conjure a welcoming atmosphere with their warming nature.

Lighter, cooler shades can reflect light and open up a room to create a spacious feel.

Our stunning Harrogate range has a shimmering stripe overlay which can further produce an expansive feel.

PINKS & PURPLES

Behold Beautiful Copper Blushes

Currently prevalent within interior design is the use of soft pastel pinks and purples, with particular attention being paid to copper blush pinks.

Pinks and Purples are unassuming colours that have connotations of nurturing and protection, which enables them to induce a comforting environment.

Try our chalky Avery Blush fabric to add a subtle glow of warmth to your home.

BLUES & GREENS

This year has witnessed blues teaming up with zesty, citrus greens to create an interesting colour combination within interior design.

Blues and Greens combined have the ability to inject vibrancy yet still evoke a calming ambience, as their base tones induce peace and tranquillity into a space.

They are practical colours that are entirely versatile throughout the home as their tones work harmoniously with any room styling.

To obtain a modern, fresh-feel use one of our stunning teals
Nirvana Cobalt and Sherwood Teal.
